Aching muscles, freezing temperatures, and mud highlighted the junior-senior powderpuff football game this year. The game, scheduled after the regular football season, saw the Senior "Sock-It-To-Em Sweeties" flog the Junior "Changing Chargers" 6-0. Senior fullback, Collyn Monroe, came to the rescue when quarterback 'Spence' Spencley was injured during the pregame warm-up.

After the senior girls won in the last two minutes of the game, the faculty men and the Varsity
