It is the end of an era;
 One more year has passed.
 We've grown intellectually and
 physically;
 We've made friends to last.

We've shown our pride and spirit
 In everything we do.
 Even during the worst of times
 We always would pull through.

When we started here at DHS
 Time seemed unlimited.
 Our parents said, "Enjoy it now,
 Time will fly," and it did.

So the time to move on grows
 near;
 Time to leave childhood behind.
 Out into the real world of pressures
 With fabulous treasures to find.

The experiences we've shared
 Right from the very start.
 We never will forget we cared;
 DHS is in our hearts.
