

Chris Rypstra

Ben Schafer

Steven Schafer

Jill Schaub

Trevor Schmitz

What lies ahead?

Some things in life you can control, others control you. Steer your own destiny and enjoy the ride.

As time marches on, the seniors take the fast lane into life. The changes they will face are amazing and pose many doubts for their future. With sports, drama, college applications, and the constant pressures to succeed, the seniors' lives have become a chaotic mess filled with total confusion.

The next step: to continue achieving in life after high school. Be it undergraduate school, trade school, or going on to an occupation, each is sure to prevail. Many have conquered the decision that has caused sleepless nights and massive headaches; others are still battling.

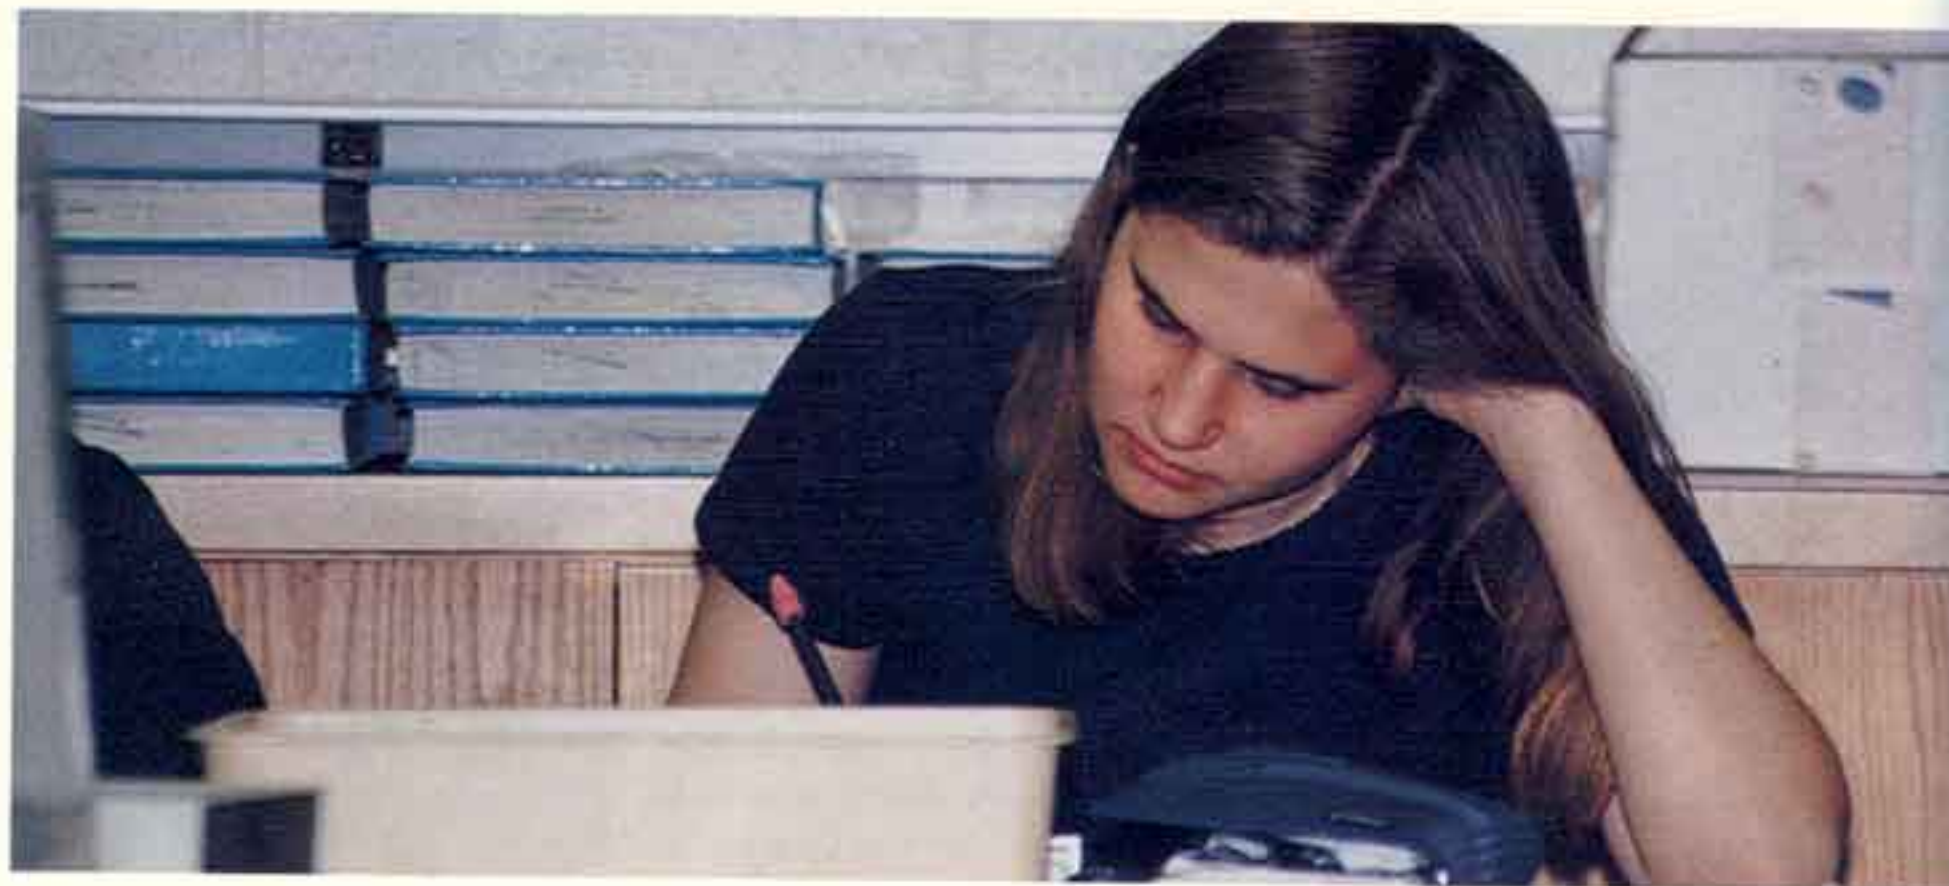

There are thousands of words that can be used to describe the mysterious future. Some may be worried, scared, or anxious. Jason Thrush is "content" with his plans after high school. Lesly Wilberding, on the other hand, comments that she is more apprehensive about her venture onward. Tim Goff says he is "happy" about what is in store for him beyond the walls of DHS

With the caliber of students in this class of 1997, success is never out of sight. Hold tight to your dreams, and reach for the stars; you might not get the one you wanted but you can't end up with a handful of mud!

• Emma Bambery
Heidi Bunker

Studious—Diligently working on her calculus, Julie Stahmer struggles through calculations. Her hand seems to always pull at her hair. Julie never accepts an answer that can't be explained. With trusty planner in hand, she will always be on top of her "to-do" list.

Olivia Schnepf

Brenda Scovel

Sherren Sebrell

Chad Seigle

Nathan Shopbell