(Opposite) Panther power—Forming a close-knit group, Ray Molzon and the Nelson brothers, Dave and Dan, sit calm while an intense excitement fires within them. It's hard for them to keep their cool at these pep assemblies, but years of meditation have paid off.

Keep your feet to yourself!—Even though it's supposed to be the best year of Jovan Kovacic's life, Ben Pfaff sure does make it rough with all of his puns and tree-trunk-like neck.

Lost in thought—As Chad Belbeck looks out the window at the uncertain world, he asks himself, "Is there life after high school?"

(opposite) Surviving the boredom—Occupying themselves during a class lecture, Dave Horski and Kay Rhodes inspect the dust particles they find on the ground. Hey, look—it's a piece of lint!

Yeah, that's what I like!—As always, Lucas Zampetti is spending every waking hour of his school day doing what he enjoys most: trying to get back to sleep.
