

110%— Perhaps they didn't earn All-State honors this year, but Mike Ruelle and Derrick Elsea are certainly dedicated to Panther football. Crowd favorites, these two made the most of the playing time they got. They were also big hits (and big money makers) at the annual Legs and Lunches assembly, with Derrick bringing in more money than anyone else.

Get down, get funky— Getting their groove on, Melissa McClure and Al Denniston boogie down at the halloween dance. The costumes added a little spice to the night. The dance put on by the yearbook staff was a hit for everyone.

Chug, chug, pass— It takes a lot to fill up this large frame. Dan Thompson chugs with such force he causes the bottle to collapse. You can bet the Seniors won this contest.

Eat the pud— In a race to beat out the other classes, Missy Benson tries her best to spoon the chocolate pudding into her partners mouth. Warren Dodson gives up on the spooning technique, and decides to shove his face into it.
