Yum-Yum— Getting ready to dive into a feast of hot dogs and french fries, Jacob Haman prepares his taste buds for the delicious taste of the school's food. Looking at his food, Jacob thinks, "Why did I pay $1.80 for an undercooked meal full of fat?"

Take me to the U.N.!— Jeff Bostelaar portrays a New York City cab driver in Theatre class while Sarah Schnable fills in as a passenger/lawyer. Jeff has a few sorts of harsh comments about lawyers, much to Sarah's dismay. After the skit ended, these two talented dramatists returned to being normal high school students and were able to forget their character differences.

The sound of music— Band member Kasie Hixon takes a break during class one day. Kasie's talent has helped the band to make wonderful music this year. She, along with the other seniors, will be missed but as always, the band plays on.
