A typical DeWitt student— Now, he may be strange at other schools, but he fits in quite well here. Jason Miller dons the classic fashion at almost every football game. The draping silly string and delicious sucker are bonus accessories to this classic outfit.

The book in my bag is sharp— As Kim Barker stares at the ceiling for the funny animals, she realizes her head hurts. She doesn't know if the pain comes from the book in her bag or from the strain she is getting from staring at the ceiling for so long. Wherever the pain comes from, she vows to get rid of it before taking a nice long nap.

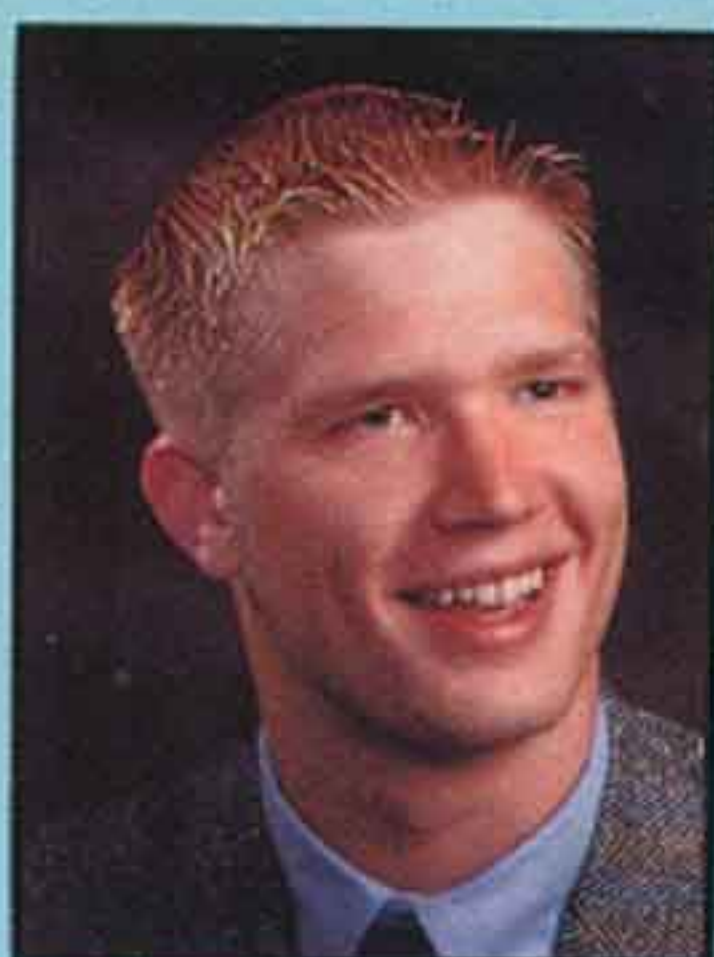

Deep thoughts— Contemplating life after high school, Marie Teller wonders if being a serious actress in Broadway plays, T.V. or movies is part of her future. She could always be the new weiner girl for "Weinies on a Stick" if being an actress falls through.

The big news— "Wanna suck my ring pop?" Jessica Johnson asks as Adriane Osmar turns around in astonishment. "How many licks does it take to get to the center of a ring pop?" she asks. "664," answers Jeni Salazar. "I was bored so I tried it." Sarah Z. pretends she didn't just hear that.
